Maths Monday:

There are 18 children altogether. What is a sensible number of rows for 18 children? Represent your rows using arrays and division equations.

Remember:

The rows should be of equal size, i.e. an equal number of children in each row.