What's going on this week?

Cruise ships around the world have found themselves docked and empty due to current travel restrictions. One former cruise ship captain, Paul Derham, has been using his ferry to organise tours to sail around some of the docked cruise ships in Dorset. Each of the cruise ships still have around 80-100 crew on board to ensure they remain safe at anchor. Some of the unused cruise ships have offered to work as 'floating hospitals' whilst they are unable to travel.

Things to talk about at home…

- Have you ever been on or seen a boat? Have you ever seen a cruise ship?
- If the cruise ships are empty, do you think they should be used for other things?
- Can you think of any other ways the cruise ships could be used?
