We would like you to put together a sequence that has a balance, a jump and a roll in it. The PowerPoint (in resources) might give you some ideas. Think about a good position to start (gymnasts often start with their arms above their heads). Then decide which balance, jump and roll your will include in your sequence. Think about how you will transition between movements. Practise your sequence a few times before performing it for someone in your house. Handwriting practice Practice the letter q and the word quit,
